A Peek At the Week

Phonics : CVC (consonant, vowel, consonant) words

Spelling: CVC words (see words listed below)

Reading: The Art Lesson, Lily's Purple Plastic Purse – Skills beginning, middle, end, author's intent, cause/effect

Math: Odd/even, addition facts
Please practice this week with odd/even numbers and adding

English: Declarative and Interrogative sentences

Social Studies: We will begin a study of the seven continents and oceans.

Things to Know

We had a terrific first three days of school!!

The children are wonderful. I told them we were going to have the best year!!

Please go over papers we do in class in the homework folders each night. Tests will come from these papers. Please keep all papers in the "keep" side at home so their binder does not become too messy.

Thanks for letting me be a part of your life this year. I look forward to getting to knowing my new family. ☺

Parent letters will be posted on my website each Friday (I hope ☺). One will be in your child's binder also.

Please return all the forms from open house ASAP. The office has been asking about them. Thank you!

Upcoming tests

Wednesday: English – types of sentences – look over sheets we practice in class nightly.

Thursday: Spelling – Words are listed to the right. You will have 9 of the words to practice. 5 unknown words will be added to apply skills we learned during the week. They will have a total of 14 words. You will see Thursday after the first test what I mean.

Thursday: Reading – The Art Lesson – Vocabulary words: photograph – the actual picture of something: compromise – to agree to accept something that is not exactly what you want

Test will be multiple choice. We will discuss the story in class thoroughly this time. ☺
Just want them to get use to the format.
